UP CLOSE...

When he's not playing soccer, cycling or spending time with his family, Tony enjoys engaging with his clients, advising them of new initiatives and bringing a smile to their faces.

Tony first started his career working in the automotive industry for 12 years where he completed a mechanical trade. After running the workshop for Mercedes Benz for a number of years, and then moving into a customer service role, he enrolled in university to further his business skills.

After completing his studies, Tony sought out a move into the cleaning industry, and worked for GLAD Group for just over 15 years, starting out as client services manager, then being promoted to regional manager and then general manager. In 2020 he joined Ozland Group Solutions as a Senior Executive, bringing his extensive experience in strategic planning and contract delivery.

Tony holds a Masters of Business Operations Management, and a Diploma in HR Management, and his greatest strength lies in his ability to develop real partnerships and nurture long-term relationships. He's developed a large network of contacts and clients over the years, which he believes is pivotal in achieving business success and results. Tony is passionate about the industry, and is a supportive leader, who rewards a job well done.

“At Ozland, we're all focused on one goal and it feels like a family. Our results aren't just commercial results, they are a team result.”
